STATEMENT

The Huddersfield African West Indian (HUDAWI) Cultural Centre is Company Limited by Guarantee. The Company's purpose is to provide community facilities for meetings, learning and collaboration between community organisations. Additionally, we aim to facilitate and promote social inclusion and cohesion through educational programmes and events, without limitation to background. In pursuing these aims, the charity recognises the particular needs of African Caribbean communities and will prioritise initiatives that address those needs, while remaining open and accessible to all who fall within the charity's purposes. Through these initiatives, HCC seeks to build a stronger, more connected community where individuals feel empowered.

Our Operating Principles and Values

As a CLG, we take our compliance obligations seriously with duties, responsibilities, and public trust to be upheld accordingly. Our key values are transparency, accountability and operating consistently and fairly. This policy ensures that we operate legally and safely, in line with legislation and best practice, to protect the people, our purpose, our finances, and the reputation of HCC.
